The Civil Rights Bill Veto

To the Senate of the United States

I regret that the bill which has passed both Houses of Congress entitled "An act to protect all persons in the United States in their civil rights and furnish the means of their vindication," contains provisions which I cannot approve consistently with my sense of duty to the whole people and my obligations to the Constitution of the United States. I am therefore constrained to return it to the Senate (the House in which it originated) with my objections to its becoming a law.

By the first section of the bill all persons born in the United States and not subject to any foreign power, excluding Indians not taxed, are declared to be citizens of the United States. This provision comprehends the Chinese of the Pacific States, Indians subject to taxation, the people called gipsies, as well as the entire race designated as blacks, people of color, negroes, mulattoes, and persons of African blood. Every individual of these races born in the United States is by this bill made a citizen of the United States. It does not purport to declare or confer any other right of citizenship than Federal citizenship. It does not purport to give these classes of persons any status as citizens of States, except that which may result from their status as citizens of the United States. The power to confer the right of State citizenship is just as exclusively with the several States as the power to confer the right of Federal citizenship is with Congress. The right of Federal citizenship thus to be conferred in the several excepted races before mentioned is now, for the first time, proposed to be given by law.

If, as is claimed by many, all persons who are native-born already are, by virtue of the Constitution, citizens of the United States, the passage of the pending bill cannot be necessary to make them such. If, on the other hand, such persons are not citizens, as may be assumed from the proposed legislation to make them such, the grave question presents itself whether, where eleven of the thirty six States are unrepresented in Congress at this time, it is sound policy to make our entire colored population and all other excepted classes citizens of the United States. Four millions of them have emerged from slavery into freedom. Can it be reasonably supposed that they possess the requisite qualifications to entitle them to all the privileges and immunities of citizenship of the United States? Have the people of the several States expressed such a conviction? It may also be asked whether it is necessary that they should be declared citizens in order that they may be secured in the enjoyment of the civil rights proposed to be conferred by the bill. Those rights are by Federal as well as by State laws, secured to all domiciled aliens and foreigners even before the completion of the process of naturalization; and it may safely be assumed that the same enactments are sufficient to give like protection and benefits to those for whom this bill provides special legislation. Besides, the policy of the government from its origin to the present time, seems to have been that persons who are strangers to and unfamiliar with our institutions and our laws, should pass through a certain probation, at the end of which, before attaining the coveted prize, they must give evidence of their fitness to receive and to exercise the rights of citizens as contemplated by the Constitution of the United States.

The bill in effect proposes a discrimination against large numbers of intelligent, worthy, and patriotic foreigners, and in favor of the negro, to whom, after long years of bondage, the avenues to freedom and intelligence have just now been opened. He must, of necessity, from his previous unfortunate condition of servitude, be less informed as to the nature and character of our institutions than he who, coming from abroad has, to some extent, at least familiarized himself with the principles of a government to which he voluntarily entrusts life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Yet it is now proposed, by a single legislative enactment, to confer the rights of citizens upon all persons of African descent born within the extended limits of the United States, while persons of foreign birth, who make our land their home, must undergo a probation of five years, and can only then become citizens upon proof that they are of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same. The first section of the bill also contains an enumeration of the rights to be enjoyed by those persons so made citizens in every State and Territory in the United States. These rights are, to make and enforce contracts, to sue, be parties, and give evidence, to inherit, purchase, lease, sell, hold and convey real and personal property, and to have full and equal benefit of all laws and proceedings for the security of persons and property, as is enjoyed by white citizens. So too, they are made subject to the same punishment, pains and penalties common with white citizens, and to none others. Thus a perfect equality of the white and colored races is attempted to be fixed by Federal law, in every State of the Union over the vast field of State jurisdiction covered by these enumerated rights. In no one of them can any State exercise any power of discrimination between different races. In the exercise of State policy, over matters exclusively affecting the people of each State it has frequently been thought expedient to discriminate between the two races. By the statutes of some of the States, North as well as South, it is enacted, for instance, that no white person shall intermarry with a negro or mulatto. Chancellor Kent says, speaking of the blacks, that marriage between them and the whites are forbidden in some of the States where slavery does not exist, and they are prohibited in all the slave holding States by law, and when not absolutely contrary to law they are revolting, and regarded as an offence against public decorum. I do not say that this bill repeals State laws on the subject of marriage between the two races, for, as the whites are forbidden to intermarry with the blacks, the blacks can only make such contracts as the whites themselves are allowed to make, and, therefore, cannot under this bill, enter into the marriage contract with the whites. I cite this discrimination, however, as an instance of the State policy as to discrimination, and to inquire whether, if Congress can abrogate all State laws of discrimination between the two races, in matter of real estate, of suits, and of contracts generally, Congress may not also repeal the State laws as to the contract of marriage between the two races. Hitherto every subject embraced in the enumeration of rights contained in this bill has been considered as exclusively belonging to the States; they all relate to the internal policy and economy of the respective States; they are matters which in each State concern the domestic condition of its people, varying in each according to its own peculiar circumstances and the safety and well being of its own citizens. I do not mean to say that upon all these subjects there are not Federal restraints; as, for instance, in the State power of legislation over contracts there is a Federal limitation that no State shall pass a law impairing the obligations of contracts; and, as to crimes, that no State shall pass an ex post facto law, and as to money, that no State shall make anything but gold and silver a legal tender. But where can we find a Federal prohibition against the power of any State to discriminate, as do most of them, between aliens and citizens, between artificial persons called corporations and naturalized persons, in the right to hold real estate? If it be granted that Congress can repeal all State laws discriminating between whites and blacks in the subjects covered by this bill, why, it may be asked, may not Congress repeal in the same way all State laws discriminating between the two races on the subject of suffrage and office? If Congress can declare by law who shall hold lands, who shall testify, who shall have capacity to make a contract in a State, then Congress can also, by law, declare who, without regard to race or color, shall have the right to sit as a juror or as a judge, to hold any office, and finally to vote in every State and Territory of the United States. As respects the Territories, they come within the power of Congress, for as to them the law-making power is the Federal power; but as to the States, no similar provision exists vesting in Congress the power to make rules and regulations for them.

The object of the second section of the bill is to afford discriminating protection to colored persons in the full enjoyment of all the rights secured to them by the preceding section. It declares that "any person who, under color of any law, statute, ordinance, regulation or custom, shall subject or cause to be subjected, any inhabitant of any State or Territory to the deprivation of any right secured or protected by this act, or to different punishment, pains or penalties, on account of such person having at any time been held in a condition of slavery or involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, or by reason of his color or race, than is prescribed for the punishment of white persons, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the Court." This section seems to be designed to apply to some existing or future law of a State or Territory which may conflict with the bill under consideration. It provides for counteracting such forbidden legislation by imposing fine and imprisonment upon the legislators who may pass such conflicting laws, or upon the officers or agents who shall attempt to put them into execution. It means an official offence, not a common crime committed against the law upon the person or property of the black race. Such an act may deprive the black man of his property. It means a deprivation of the right itself either by the State Judiciary or the State Legislature. It is therefore assumed that, under this section, members of a State Legislature who vote for laws conflicting with the provisions of the bill, that Judges of the State Courts who should render judgments in antagonism with its terms, and that Marshals and Sheriffs who should, as ministerial officers, execute processes sanctioned by State laws and issued by State Judges in execution of their judgments, could be brought before other tribunals and there subjected to fine and imprisonment for the performance of the duties which such State laws might impose. The legislation thus proposed invades the judicial power of the State. It says to every State Court or Judge, If you decide that this act is unconstitutional; if you refuse, under the prohibition of a State law, to allow a negro to testify; if you hold that over such a subject matter the State law is paramount, and under color of a State law refuse the exercise of the right to the negro, your errors of judgment, however conscientious, shall subject you to fine and imprisonment. I do not apprehend that the conflicting legislation which the bill seems to contemplate is so likely to occur as to render it necessary at this time to adopt a measure of such doubtful constitutionality. In the next place, this provision of the bill is unnecessary, as adequate judicial remedies could be adopted to secure the desired end without invading the immunities of legislators, always important to be preserved in the interest of public liberty; without assailing the independence of the judiciary, always essential to the preservation of individual rights; and without impairing the efficiency of ministerial officers, always necessary for the maintenance of public peace and order. The remedy proposed by this section seems to be in this respect not only anomalous but unconstitutional, for the Constitution guarantees nothing with certainty if it does not insure to the several States the right of making and executing laws in regard to all matters arising within their jurisdiction, subject only to the restriction that in cases of conflict with the Constitutional laws of the United States the latter to be held as the supreme law of the land.

The third section gives the district courts of the United States exclusive cognizance of all crimes and offences committed against the provisions of this act, and concurrent jurisdiction with the Circuit Courts of the United States of all civil and criminal cases affecting persons who are denied or cannot enforce in the Courts or judicial tribunals of the State or locality where they may be any of the rights secured to them by the first section. The construction which I have given to the second section is strengthened by this third section, for it makes clear what kind of denial or deprivation of rights secured by the first section was in contemplation. It is a denial or deprivation of such rights in the Courts or judicial tribunals of the State. It stands, therefore, clear of doubt that the offence and the penalties provided in the second section are intended for the State Judge who, in the clear exercise of his functions as a Judge, not acting ministerially but judicially, shall decide contrary to this Federal law. In other words, when a State Judge, acting upon a question involving a conflict between a State law and Federal law, and bound, according to his own judgment and responsibility, to give an impartial decision between the two, comes to the conclusion that the State law is valid and the Federal law is invalid, he must not follow the dictates of his own judgment at the peril of fine and imprisonment. The legislative department of the Government of the United States thus takes from the judicial department of the States the sacred and exclusive duty of judicial decision, and converts the State Judge into a mere ministerial officer, bound to decide according to the will of Congress. It is clear that in States which deny to persons whose rights are secured by the first section of the bill any one of those rights, all criminal and civil cases affecting them will, by the provisions of the third section, come under the executive cognizance of the Federal tribunals. It follows that if, in any State which denies to a colored person any one of all those rights, that person should commit a crime against the laws of a State—murder, arson, rape, or any other crime—all protection and punishment through the Courts of the State are taken away, and he can only be tried and punished in the Federal Courts. How is the criminal to be tried? If the offence is provided for and punished by the Federal law, that law, and not the State law, is to govern. It is only when the offence does not happen to be within the purview of Federal law that the Federal Courts are to try and punish him under any other law. Then resort is to be had to the common law, as modified and changed by State legislation, so far as the same is not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States. So that over this vast domain of criminal jurisprudence, provided by each State for the protection of its own citizens, and for the punishment of all citizens who violate its criminal laws, Federal law, wherever it can be made to apply, displaces State law. The question here naturally arises, from what source Congress derives the power to transfer to Federal tribunals certain classes of cases embraced in this section. The Constitution of the United States expressly declares that the judicial power of the United States "shall extend to all cases in law and equity arising under this Constitution, the laws of the United States and treaties made, or which shall be made under their authority; to all cases affecting ambassadors or other public ministers or consuls; to all cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; to controversies to which the United States shall be a party; to controversies between two or more States; between a State and citizens of another State; between citizens of different States; between citizens of the same State, claiming land under grants of different States, and between a State or the citizens thereof and foreign States, citizens or subjects." Here the judicial power of the United States is expressly set forth and determined, and the act of September 24, 1789, establishing the judicial courts of the United States, in conferring upon the Federal Courts jurisdiction over cases originating in State tribunals, is careful to confine them to the cases enumerated in the above recited clause in the Constitution. This section of the bill undoubtedly comprehends cases and authorizes the exercise of powers that are not, by the Constitution, within the jurisdiction of the Courts of the United States. To transfer them to those courts would be an exercise of authority well calculated to excite distrust and alarm on the part of all the States, for the bill applies alike to all of them, as well to those that have, as to those that have not, been engaged in the rebellion.

It may be assumed that this authority is incident to the power granted to Congress by the Constitution as recently amended, to enforce by appropriate legislation the article declaring that neither slavery nor involuntary servitude except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist in the United States or any place subject to their jurisdiction. It cannot, however, be justly claimed that, with a view to the enforcement of this article of the Constitution there is at present any necessity for the exercise of all the powers which this bill confers. Slavery has been abolished, and at present nowhere exists in the United States, nor has there been, nor is there likely to be, any attempt to revive it by the people of the States. If, however, any such attempt is made, it will then become the duty of the General Government to exercise any and all incidental powers necessary and proper to maintain inviolate this great law of freedom. The fourth section of the bill provides that officers and agents of the Freedmen's Bureau shall be empowered to make arrests, and also that other officers may be specially commissioned for that purpose by the President of the United States. It also authorizes Circuit Courts of the United States and the Superior Courts of the Territories to appoint, without limitation, Commissioners, who are to be charged with the performance of quasi judicial duties. The fifth section empowers the Commissioners so to be selected by the Court to appoint, in writing, one or more suitable persons from time to time, to execute warrants and other processes desirable by the bill. These numerous official agents are made to constitute a sort of police in addition to the military and are authorized to summon a posse comitatus, and even to call to their aid such portion of the land and naval forces of the United States, or of the militia, "as may be necessary to the performance of the duty with which they are charged." This extraordinary power is to be conferred upon agents irresponsible to the government and to the people, to whose number the discretion of the Commissioners is the only limit, and in whose hands such authority might be made a terrible engine of wrong, oppression and fraud. The general statutes regulating the land and naval forces of the United States, the militia, and the execution of the laws are believed to be adequate for any emergency which can occur in time of peace. If it should prove otherwise, Congress can at any time amend those laws in such manner as, while subserving the public welfare, not to jeopard the rights, interests and liberties of the people.

The seventh section provides that a fee of ten dollars shall be paid to each Commissioner in every case brought before him, and a fee of five dollars to his deputy or deputies for each person he or they may arrest and take before any such Commissioner, with such other fees as may be deemed reasonable by such Commissioner, in general for performing such other duties as may be required in the premises. All these fees are to be paid out of the Treasury of the United States, whether there is a conviction or not, but in case of conviction, they are to be recoverable from the defendant. It seems to me, that, under the influence of such temptations, bad men might convert any law, however beneficent, into an instrument of persecution and fraud. By the 8th section of the bill the United States Courts which sit only in one place for white citizens, must migrate with the Marshal and District Attorney, and necessarily with the Clerk, (although he is not mentioned) to any part of the district, upon the order of the President, and there hold a Court for the more speedy arrest and trial of persons charged with a violation of this act, and there the Judge and officers of the Court must remain, under the order of the President, for the time therein designated.

The ninth section authorizes the President, or such other person as he may empower for that purpose, to employ such part of the land and naval forces of the United States, or of the militia, as shall be necessary to prevent the violation and enforce the due execution of this act. This language seems to imply a permanent military force that is to be always at hand, and whose only business is to be the enforcement of this measure over the vast region where it is intended to operate.

I do not propose to consider the policy of this bill. To me the details of the bill are fraught with evil. The white race and black race of the South have hitherto lived together under the relation of master and slave—capital owning labor. Now that relation is changed, and as to ownership capital and labor are divorced. They stand now, each master of itself. In this new relation—one being necessary to the other—there will be a new adjustment, which both are deeply interested in making harmonious. Each has equal power in settling the terms, and if left to the laws that regulate capital and labor it is confidently believed that they will satisfactorily work out the problem. Capital, it is true, has more intelligence, but labor is never so ignorant as not to understand its own interests, nor to know its own value, and not to see that capital must pay that value. This bill frustrates this adjustment. It intervenes between capital and labor and attempts to settle questions of political economy through the agency of numerous officials whose interest it will be to foment discord between the two races, for as the breach widens their employment will continue, and when it is closed their occupation will terminate.

In all our history, in all our experience as a people living under Federal and State law, no such system as that contemplated by the details of this bill has ever before been proposed or adopted. They establish for the security of the colored race safeguards which go infinitely beyond any that the General Government has ever provided for the white race. In fact the distinction of race and color is by the bill made to operate in favor of the colored and against the white race. They interfere with the municipal legislation of the States, with relations existing exclusively between a State and its citizens, or between inhabitants of the same State, an absorption and assumption of power by the General Government which, if acquiesced in, must sap and destroy our Federative system of limited powers and break down the barriers which preserve the rights of the States. It is another step, or rather a stride, towards centralization and the concentration of all legislative powers in the National Government. The tendency of the bill must be to resuscitate the spirit of rebellion and to arrest the progress of those influences which are more closely drawing around the States the bonds of Union and peace.

My lamented predecessor, in his proclamation of the first of January, 1863, ordered and declared that all persons held as slaves within certain States and parts of States therein designated, were and thenceforward should be free, and further, that the Executive Government of the United States, including the military and naval authorities thereof, would recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons. This guarantee has been rendered especially obligatory and sacred by the amendment of the Constitution abolishing slavery throughout the United States. I therefore fully recognize the obligation to protect and defend that class of our people whenever and wherever it shall become necessary, and to the full extent compatible with the Constitution of the United States. Entertaining these sentiments, it only remains for me to say that I will cheerfully co-operate with Congress in any measure that may be necessary for the protection of the civil rights of the freedmen, as well as those of all other classes of persons throughout the United States, by judicial process, under equal and impartial laws, or conformably with the provisions of the Federal Constitution.

I now return the bill to the Senate and regret that in considering the bills and joint resolutions, forty-two in number, which have been submitted for my approval, I am compelled to withhold my assent from a second measure that has received the sanction of both Houses of Congress.

Reconstruction

The country will heartily rejoice to learn that the Reconstruction Committee has at last agreed upon a plan by which the lately rebellious States may be speedily restored to their normal relations with the other states of the Union

The amendment to the Constitution agreed upon by the Committee will in all probability be passed through both houses of Congress In substance it provides that representation in Congress shall be based upon male citizens above twenty one years, not excluded from franchise on account of crime; excludes from privilege of voting for Presidential Electors and members of Congress till July 4th, 1870, all who voluntarily engaged in the late rebellion, forbids the assumption by the United States or any State, of the rebel debt, and denies the right to claim compensation for slaves emancipated It also declares the paramount authority of the United States, and provides for equality before the law of all citizens of the United States

The accompanying bills provide for the admission of Senators and Representatives when the amendment shall be ratified, and excludes from all public offices, Federal and State, all leading rebels who served in the army or navy of the Confederacy, above the rank of Colonel of the army and corresponding rank of the navy.

The question of universal suffrage seems to have been ridden down in the committee and will probably not be revived again. Even Thad Stevens agrees to drop it. Through all the smoke of the reconstruction battle, it has been for some time evident that this conclusion would be reached in the end.

We cannot see anything really objectionable in the proposed amendment, in view of what we believe to have been the deep criminal character of the late rebellion. Those who voluntarily aided in that crime are only disfranchised for four years,—a term of probation quite incommensurate with their offense. Those who served with such zeal and efficiency as to rise above the rank of Colonel are not fit to hold high, responsible offices, and are rightfully excluded. The paramount authority of the General Government is one of the issues settled by the war and the refusal to recognize the rebel debts in any shape, is right in law and in morals. Representation in Congress is left much in the hands of each State—excluding persons under twenty-one years, Indians not taxed, and persons disfranchised for crime, the States may give the franchise to whomsoever they please, and their representation in Congress will be in proportion to all such enfranchised persons. There is nothing wrong in this. The equality before the law of all men—equal rights and liabilities—is a proposition supported by the highest dictates of justice and in perfect accordance with the genius of our Government.

One of the bills reported by the committee provides for the admission of members of Congress when the Constitutional Amendment shall have been ratified. All necessary guarantees for future good faith, are due to the Government from late voluntary traitors, as conditions precedent to their admission to the privileges and immunities conferred by the Constitution and laws.

Let Congress now act speedily and wisely upon these measures and give the country rest from the turmoil of Presidential and Congressional wrangles. The more quickly they do it, the greater commendation they will get from the whole people.

Canyon City News.

We find the following items in the Mountaineer of the 24th:

Mr. Page, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Messenger, arrived here yesterday.

TREASURE BOX RECOVERED.

The treasure box of Wells, Fargo & Co., which was lost some time since in the South Fork of the John Day, has been recovered about a mile below the place where it was lost. The box contained $8,000 in treasure, besides the letter express.

HIGH WATER—MINING SUSPENDED.

High water at Canyon City has washed away the greater part of the town, and mining operations on the Creek were entirely suspended. The damage done to the town and mining claims is very great.

All the streams between here and Canyon City were swimming. The stage from Canyon City was compelled to stop on the other side of the South Fork, being unable to cross that stream.

STOLEN HORSES RECOVERED.

The Canyon City Stage Company, recovered six of the horses stolen from them some time since at Muddy, on the head waters of Crooked River, and it was thought by the men who found the horses that they would succeed in getting back sixteen more. Parties are now out, and it is to be hoped that they will find the hiding place of the Indians before they return.

TRAVEL MOSTLY SUSPENDED.

There is very little travel on the road at present, owing to the constant fear of the Indians, who have almost exclusive possession of the country between here and Canyon City.

When the vessel was prepared to sail Mercer refused to receive plaintiff on board, and to set up the terms of contract, notwithstanding he has received and retained the passage money He now brings suit to recover the $650 paid Mercer, $500 expenses incurred from his detention in New York, and $1,150 damages, making in all $2,350 Mrs Thorpe, in her complaint and affidavit, states that she contracted with Mercer for passage of herself and three children, for which she paid $400 but that Mercer refused to receive them on board when the steamer sailed Part of her baggage had been previously sent on board, and was taken away in the ship She seeks to recover $400 paid Mercer $200 for value of her baggage which was lost, and $600 damages, making $1,200 in all

The presence of nearly all the Senators and Representatives who support the President, at the White House last evening [illegible]

The Correspondence with France.

The [illegible] between France and the United States just published treats of the negotiations which [illegible] the decision of the French Government to withdraw its troops from Mexico [illegible] in the first place to have her right to make war on Mexico recognized by the United States This was readily granted Drouyn de l'Huys then in January addressed Bigelow an informal note saying [illegible] to Mexico [illegible] before for the guarantees which we have [illegible] and which are incomplete [illegible] arrangements with the Emperor Maximilian At that moment the mission of our troops will be accomplished and they can return to France I wrote in this sense to Mexico, by order of the Emperor, on the 15th of January Bigelow had a conversation with Drouyn de l'Huys of which he writes to Seward I asked Mr de L'Huys if he could give me an idea of the guarantees which he hoped to obtain from Mexico He said they did not of course expect to get the money owing them but hoped for something which they might regard as an equivalent

But as it was a matter of negotiation between them and Mexico but he could not very well talk to me about their guarantees now as they must depend on the result of the pending negotiations in Mexico and were liable to be different from anything they might be able to suggest now It thus appears that the French Government must have extorted from the Mexican Emperor certain guarantees for indemnity before yielding to the demand of our Government to withdraw the troops from Mexico What these objections were the French Minister of State has failed to communicate to Seward in the dispatches announcing the intention to withdraw the French troops in the course of two years If they are, as reported by the European newspapers, to continue in possession of the Mexican seaports the Mexican complication it is obvious, is by no means settled

Lands Confirmed to the State of California

The New Loan Prematurely Reported.

The statement that the Secretary of the Treasury will soon put a new loan in the market is untrue The subject has been under advisement, but no decision will be reached for several weeks.

The Convention between the United States and Japan.

WASHINGTON, April 28—The President has officially proclaimed the convention between the Emperor of Japan and the Governments of the United States Great Britain France and Holland providing for the payment by the Japanese of $3,000,000 indemnity for damage to shipping and the stoppage of trade in the straits of Simons by the hostile action of Prince Nagato It is agreed that in lieu of money the Tycoon may open Simonoseki or other ports in the inland sea, which ever the above named governments may accept.

Business and Financial Matters.

CHICAGO, April 28—The New York shipping list of the 26th, says that business continues impartially dull and there is a general depression Money is so very plenty as to be almost a drug in the market Interest is low Since our last, while the price of gold has not essentially changed, we note a general and rapid decline of commercial value. The changes in the tariff are not known, and there is no telling when they will be Congress does not appear to appreciate the importance of finally settling this question, and has held the business community, throughout the country, for four or five months, in ignorance.

The custom-house receipts last week, were $2 555 537 The balance now in the sub-Treasury, is $97,501 344

Dry goods are dull The Providence printing cloth market is very dull, printers generally, as well as speculators, declining to buy at present quotations, and anticipate a further decided change The stocks on hand are accumulating, and will be rapidly increased after the 1st of May

In hardware, there is a light stock and a fair assortment prices steady Hides, California light, 30@31½c; middle heavy at 31@32c, Molasses has an upward tendency, Cuba Muscovado, 60c; St. Croix 73c, Porto Rico, 70@75c Sugar, liberal receipts of West India and on good Cuba, a slight improvement has been realized The Sinarts have reduced their figures to 15¾ for best crushed, ground and granulated, and 14¾ for white.

Stock Quotation.

The latest stock quotations are as follows Quicksilver, 22½c, Mariposa preferred at 22¾; Western Union Telegraph, $56; Atlantic Mail, $1 35¼; Quartz Hill, $5 25; Consolidated Gregory, $16 20

Monetary—Trade—Mining Stocks

NEW YORK, April 28—Stock quotations to-day are as follows: Mariposa, $22 50; Mariposa, preferred, $21; Pacific Mail $123, Western Union Telegraph, $55. The Evening Commercial says the stock market shows a slight reaction as to activity, but the prices are nominally a fraction better, the market being sustained by general confidence in further improvement. These are indicative of a vigorous bull movement in some leading shares Government stocks are less active; 5-twenties ⅛@¾ lower, and 7-thirties ⅛@¾ better, Of the miscellaneous list, Mariposa preferred, was more active, opening at $25 and closing at $24. Western Union Telegraph stock rose 1¾ Money is plenty and prime paper is in demand round sums being offered at ¼@½ per cent below prevailing rate.

Cholera.

Since the last report by the health officer, there have been fifteen new cases of cholera admitted to the hospital ship and five deaths, leaving ninety-six cases still in the hospital. The sloops of war Saratoga and Portsmouth have been sent to the lower quarantine as hospital ships Dispatches from Halifax say the passengers by the England left there are now well, and that there has not been any deaths among them during the week

The Vote on the Colorado Bill.

CHICAGO, April 28—The following was the vote by which the Senate passed the Colorado bill on Wednesday the 25th Ayes—Chandler of Michigan Clark of New Hampshire Conness of California, Cragin of New Hampshire Creswell of Maryland, Howard of Michigan Howe of Wisconsin, Kirkwood of Iowa, Lane of Indiana, Nye of Nevada, Pomeroy of Kansas Ramsey of Minnesota Sherman of Ohio, Sprague of Rhode Island, Stewart of Nevada, Trumbull of Illinois, Van Winkle of West Virginia, Wiley of West Virginia and Wilson of Massachusetts—19 Noes—Buckalew of Pennsylvania, Davis of Kentucky, Doolittle of Wisconsin, Edmunds of Vermont, Foster of Connecticut Grimes Iowa, Guthrie of Kentucky, Hendricks of Indiana, McDougall of California, Morgan of New York, Poland of Vermont, Riddle of Delaware, Lander of Massachusetts—13 Henderson of Missouri, Lane of Kansas, Norton of Minnesota, Wade of Ohio, Williams of Oregon and Yates of Iowa, for the bill paired off with Cowan of Pennsylvania, Dixon of Connecticut, Fessenden of Maine, Harris of New York, Johnson of Maryland and Saulsbury of Delaware The change of Doolittle from his previous vote; the appearance of Dixon to effect a pacification; the opposition of those claiming to monopolize the President's wishes, lead to apprehensions of a veto, though the President is upon record in its favor by the special message urging admission

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 28—The House was in session to day for general debate only.

Higby, of California, addressed the House to-day on reconstruction taking for his text the report of the committee on March 5th, in favor of the admission of Tennessee He differed from the committee in regard to some points in that report Two things were to be observed in that joint resolution, viz. The endorsement of the new constitution of Tennessee as Republican in form Such a declaration was the only means by which the State could be recognized by the war making power of the United States But the constitution of Tennessee decided who should be entitled to the elective franchise which it limits to the whites—those who had been engaged in the rebellion being disfranchised. The colored population of Tennessee is more than one-fourth of the whole number, and the loyal white population is not more than a quarter; if therefore this latter quarter was to have exclusive political control then he contended the constitution was not Republican in form

He held however that the civil rights bill gave also political rights, since one was essential to the other If these people are citizens of the United States where does the power exist to deny them the elective franchise? He believed every citizen had a right to vote and there is no power under the government to deprive him of it But this joint resolution while recognizing the supreme power of Congress could permit a state of things in Tennessee under which the loyal colored population would be disfranchised There was no element of republicanism in it That a government was not republican which excluded a large part of its citizens from the franchise Congress had control over this matter and it was their duty to declare that no constitution is republican in form, which excludes any portion of its citizens from the franchise

CHICAGO, April 28—The House yesterday killed the N P R R after a protracted and stormy debate The bill was laid on the table ayes 76, noes 56 The bill as originally reported last Tuesday evening April 24th provided that the United States should guarantee six per cent interest on the stock for 20 years on the following amounts on 200 shares of stock per mile, between the eastern terminus and 110th west meridian; on 250 shares per mile in the Mountain District between the 111th and 119th meridian; on 300 shares per mile from the 119th meridian to the western terminus The bill further provided for the securing of the United States out of the gross receipts and land sales The following is a summary of the debate on the bill running through three days

Wentworth of Illinois said the names of well known gentlemen including General Grant had been inserted as corporators in the original charter without their really having any interest in the matter or knowing anything about it He said that if responsible railroad men in each State were made corporators, he would vote for the bill but he had in vain sought information as to where the money was [illegible]

Bingham of Ohio mentioned the fact that his own name was put in the charter without his knowledge

Mr Woodbridge of Vt mentioned the name of John Gregory Smith of Vt a successful railroad man as President of the road

Wentworth—Does he know that he is President?

Shellabarger of Ohio said the [illegible] stock [illegible] had sold out for $30 000 each and other sums in the future

Delano of Ohio said the lands granted this road were worth $4 000 per mile The corporators had these and now want money

Wentworth—There was the Illinois [illegible] Now there was land in the bill and now there was [illegible] and now there was money in it and now there was not [Laughter]

Kelley of Penn asked whether it was possible to exclude the lobby from the floor of the House

Donnelly of Minn suggested that the O P R R agents were lobbying against the bill

Farnsworth, of Ills read an extract from a pamphlet published by the directors of the company estimating the value of the land granted at $473,365 000—the entire cost of the road at $120,000 000 leaving to the shareholders a clear profit of $353,060,000 This he said was the representation by which the company wanted [illegible] [illegible] the Pacific

[illegible] of New York, said that the grant of [illegible] was a good thing [illegible] but [illegible] to carry out the project [illegible] at the moment they presented [illegible] late objections were made that too [illegible] lions would have to be spent before [illegible] made available. The consequence would [illegible] American capitalists to invest in it though they [illegible] get British capitalists [illegible] New England, however he had met at [illegible] examined the [illegible] its passing [illegible] had taken the [illegible] expenses of surveying, printing, etc He believed that [illegible] not only the Central but also the Northern [illegible] Rail road

Stevens of Pennsylvania [illegible] the United States, and [illegible] one hour in advocacy of the bill

Bingham, of Ohio said the amendment ought to silence [illegible] and the British [illegible]

Stevens of Pennsylvania said the question ought to be discussed with gravity. This was a national work and ought to be put through. He read the list of [illegible] and called on Banks of Mass to vouch for them. He [illegible] country through which the road was projected was richer in mines than any other. He was informed that arrangements were now being made to bring on [illegible] Europe this summer to plant along the [illegible]

Price of Iowa at five o'clock p m on Friday the 27th demanded the previous question

Spalding of Ohio moved to lay the bill and amendments on the table

Question of order having been raised [illegible] could be thus denied his right [illegible] the Speaker decided that the motion [illegible] the table was in order. The question was taken [illegible] interest.

After the result was declared Wright of New Jersey moved to reconsider and lay that motion on the table

Darling of New York with a view to prevent the vote from being taken finally moved an adjournment. The House refused to adjourn—ayes 52 noes 9

Lynch of Maine again moved to adjourn and the House again refused. The motion to reconsider was then laid on the table without division

LONDON, April 28—The Reconstruction Committee had a few [illegible] yesterday at which all the members were present and agreed upon the following joint resolution, which will be reported to Congress to-morrow as an amendment to the Constitution, namely

SECTION 1 No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws

SEC 2 Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union according to their respective numbers counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed; but whenever in any State the elective franchise shall be denied to any portion of its male citizens not younger than twenty-one years of age or in any way abridged except for participation in the rebellion or other crimes, the basis of representation of said State shall be reduced in the proportion in which the number of such male citizens not entitled to the franchise shall bear to the whole number of male citizens not less than twenty one years of age

SEC. 3 On and up to the 4th of July 1870 all persons who voluntarily adhered to the late insurrection giving aid and comfort, shall be excluded from the right to vote for members of Congress and for Electors for President and Vice President of the United States

SEC 4 Neither the United States nor any State will assume or pay any debt or obligation already incurred nor which may hereafter be incurred in aid of the insurrection against the United States or claim compensation for the loss of involuntary servitude or labor

SEC 5 Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article

The committee agreed to the bills accompanying the above propositions, one of which provides for the admission of Senators and Representatives from late rebellious States, in Congress whenever the above amendment is ratified as part of the Federal Constitution. Another bill excludes leading rebels from holding any office in State or Federal, including Vice Presidents, heads of departments, agents in foreign countries governors, officers of the army above the rank of Colonel, officers of the navy above the rank of major, all who having held Federal offices in 1862 in Congress the cabinet, the judiciary or military, or otherwise, who subsequently gave aid or comfort to the rebellion

The above propositions were adopted by the committee by a vote of 12 against 3, Senator Johnson and Representatives Grider and Rogers voting no

The question requiring negro suffrage after ten years was not pressed in the committee, even Thad Stevens consenting to drop it The committee then voted to remove the ban of secrecy, and considerable satisfaction was expressed that the committee had come to a final conclusion

Writ for the arrest of Gen. Rogers—He refuses to be arrested.

RALEIGH, N C April 28—Judge Fowle issued an attachment for the arrest of Gen Rogers, for refusing to recognize the writ of habeas corpus issued in favor of Major Gee, on trial before a military commission Gen Rogers refused to be arrested and so matters will stand until the case can be laid before the President

Proceedings against Gen. Canby.

NEW ORLEANS, April 28—Yesterday a rule was taken before Judge Dunn upon General Canby for contempt of court in preventing the execution of a writ of sequestration, issued by the United States District Court against 6 000 bales of cotton in the hands of the treasury agents The case was heard to-day and Judge Dunn delivered his decision saying he intended to protect and sustain the dignity of the court, and when interference with civil process shall have ceased, he would decide and punish those who had offended

The Case of Capt. Coleman.

ST. LOUIS, April 28—The United States Circuit Court has decided to order the release of Captain Coleman, on payment of the $700 fine which was imposed by the court-martial, thus deciding that he could not be imprisoned for the non payment to the Government of the $18 000 alleged to have been obtained from bounties of substitutes

Conflict between Military and Civil Authority.

NASHVILLE, TENN, April 28—Isham Anderson, a prominent citizen of Louisville having been arrested a few days since for complicity in certain frauds on the Government as developed in a court-martial, appealed to the civil courts for protection Gen Thomas resisted and took him by force The Secretary of War, in a telegram to Gen Thomas, dated April 27th informs the General that the President of the United States fully sustains him in his course in the case, and directs that he be not turned over to the civil authorities, but that he be tried by a court martial

SPRING.—Full many a time and oft during the season of 1866, now far advanced, have we sharpened our pencil preparatory to announcing the arrival in our midst of that distinguished and long-looked for stranger spring—but as often have we been obliged to treat the subject with indulgence, and patiently wait. We have seen the usual notices of her advent into other localities and our exchanges, some of them have gushed over the brightly beaming sun, the soft and balmy air and the several other ingredients which go to make up an orthodox spring. Some have gone into ecstacies over their spring bonnets, and discoursed learnedly on the latest style of hoopskirts, balmorals and gaiters. We are as ready to do this as another when the occasion presents, but we have waited.

"Come, gentle spring, ethereal mildness, come,"

have looked and longed for her coming as a lover longeth for his mistress, and she perversely and coquettishly refused to come in any quantity to speak of. Sometimes a bright, beautiful afternoon, with its brilliant sunshine and crowds of gaily dressed ladies on the streets, almost coaxed us into the belief that

"Winter is gone, and spring is come on,"

but evening, with its cold breezes, chilled our ardor and we were forced to admit that

"As yet the trembling year is unconfirmed
And Winter oft at eve resumes the breeze."

It may be that we expected too much of blustering, stormy March, when we looked for soft skies and warm sunshine, as he has ever borne a bad name, and it would be but a small loss were he and his equally disagreeable brother, November, stricken entirely from the calendar. In our opinion it is a great mistake in almanac publishers calling March a spring month—at least so far as we are concerned in this latitude. But what better in 1866 was April for spring? Certainly we have had nothing akin to that season so eloquently sung by so many gifted bards. So far, we have had scarcely enough spring weather this season this year to allow the ladies an excuse for a new bonnet, and now it is May, and the transition from winter to the oppressive heat of summer will be so rapid that we shall have barely time to note it. Hence, from this our stand point, the English idea of spring can hardly expect to be realized. But for two days past we are certainly enjoying a little of the ideal of spring, and Coleridge's lines with a slight alteration are exceedingly appropriate:

"Two days before the month of May,
And the spring comes slowly up this way."

ARRIVAL OF THE SIERRA NEVADA.—The California, Oregon and Mexico Company's steamship Sierra Nevada, [illegible] Connor commander, left San Francisco for this port Thursday, April 19th, at 4:30 P. M. Crossed the river bar on the 20th, at 7 P. M. and arrived at her wharf in this city yesterday morning about 7 o'clock. Heavy north-west winds were experienced the [illegible]. The following are passengers: Hon H W Eddy and wife, J Albright & wife, J W Rouse, J S Mays, [illegible] E Honig, R Hutchison, Miss M Costello, Wm [illegible] and 2 children, Mrs Bradbury and 3 children, [illegible] C H Wm Turnbull, Mrs E Stevens and son, [illegible] J W Mitchell, Wm Wallace, Mrs C Bolling, wife and child, W H Bennett, J Smith, W H [illegible], Saml Harris, O S Hinsdale, Saml Albright, Maj Geo Glenn, Jas Butler, Mrs C [illegible] Bacher, Jno Boyle, J Brown, F Lis, W Johnson, [illegible] McPherson, C Havrig, A Bush, P T Collins, Dr [illegible] Jno Denny and wife, W P Barry, Miss A Wood, Wm Masters, Miss Denny, W C Holman, J D [illegible] Brown, E H Bogart, J P W[illegible], (Walla Walla) and 58 others.

[illegible] cargo of merchandise, to the following: [illegible] & Co, B J Northrup & Co, H Harrison, [illegible] Co, Milwain & Joynt, Shanahan & Co, [illegible] & Co, P T Co, R Pittock, Mrs C Levy, L [illegible] & Bro, C H May, Jacob Mayer, Hills & Co, [illegible] Camp & Co, Hodge & Calef, Leon Girardet, [illegible] & R, H S, E [illegible] Bros, Everding & Beebe, [illegible] Powell & Co, D & M, Smith & Davis, B & [illegible], Levy & F[illegible], Walter Bros, [illegible] W Lamer, Baum Bros, Robt King, Waldman & Dellinger, [illegible] L Oppenheimer, Levy & [illegible], Carter, L Fleishhner & Co, [illegible] & Co, P [illegible] Co, B S Gelmer & Co, Sellar F & Co, A B [illegible] & Co.

ARRIVAL OF MERCER'S FEMALE EMIGRANTS.—The Bulletin of the 24th thus chronicles the arrival of the steamer [illegible] at that port with ninety-four passengers, [illegible] them women, who came out here on the representation and under the care of Asa Mercer, of Washington Territory: "Immediately upon the steamer being [illegible] a large number of people rushed down to the [illegible], whether to select wives or to satisfy their curiosity [illegible] the personal appearance of the fair emigrants, [illegible] what object is unknown to any but themselves, [illegible] were doomed to disappointment, for the ship [illegible] from the buoy off Folsom street wharf, several [illegible] from the shore, and no one was allowed on board. [illegible] was a great fluttering of [illegible] on board [illegible] the city front, the [illegible] of all [illegible] by a responsive fluttering of some [illegible] shore, whose owners have become [illegible] state of bachelorhood. It is said to [illegible] steamer bound northward, and consigned to [illegible], in Washington Territory, their [illegible] destination. The passenger list shows a [illegible] 'Misses,' most of whom are probably [illegible] their title and their name." The [illegible] obtained boats and [illegible] go on board the steamer, but found that [illegible] was not allowed by the officers, who politely [illegible] them to "keep off." The arrival [illegible] by the mail, knocked no [illegible] in this city, regarding the cargo of the Continental. [illegible] that portion of our population who were on [illegible] to see the girls, were doomed to disappointment—not more than two or three, if any, arrived [illegible] those fancy. It is thought that for the greatest [illegible] fair cargo will not proceed further north than [illegible] as they would be induced by favorable [illegible] remain in California. Thus ends the [illegible] of the Great King's County Emigration Scheme.

SMELTING WORKS.—Our New York letter received yesterday, the publication of which was [illegible] until tomorrow, says that Mr. H. W. Leon[illegible] ship by steamer via the Isthmus, about the [illegible] of May, machinery for the complete erection of an [illegible] Smelting Furnace, to be put in operation near this city very soon after its arrival. This is most gratifying news. In connection with this, our correspondent informs us that iron, manufactured from ore of [illegible] of that existing in this vicinity in such inexhaustible quantities, commands $75 per ton, while iron of [illegible] will command but $50 per ton in the New York market. It affords us great pleasure to announce this [illegible] fact, and trust that the true [illegible] of the [illegible] of our State, which have received so little attention in the past, may now awaken a spirit in our midst [illegible] shortly make this vicinity a second Pittsburg, [illegible] Lowell. The [illegible] and agricultural [illegible] are really the basis of any country, and [illegible] the indications are that Oregon can [illegible] in those departments.

A LUNAR BOW.—One of those [illegible] arches of [illegible] called a lunar rainbow, which is of very rare occurrence, was witnessed by some of our citizens on Saturday evening last. It extended west by north, to west, [illegible] about 8½ o'clock, while a slight mist [illegible], with a quite brilliant moon. About 10 o'clock the mist turned to drops, the moon disappeared, and consequently the rainbow [illegible]. It is represented as having been a bow of splendid effect, more faint than any displayed by the sun, yet very traceable. The lunar bow is generally the primary bow only, and is often [illegible], but when colored is faintly so.

ARRIVED.—Hon. H. W. Eddy and wife, of Milwaukie, [illegible] to our city by the Sierra Nevada yesterday, and proceeded in the afternoon to Milwaukie. It will be recollected that Mr. Eddy and Mr. A. M. [illegible] a few months ago for the East, since which [illegible] purchased an extensive tract of land in [illegible] employed a number of freedmen, and entered upon the business of cotton raising. Mr [illegible] in New York, having just arrived from the [illegible] Mr. Eddy left for Oregon. We understand [illegible] purpose remaining with us but a short time. [illegible] sincerely regret his final departure from our growing State, where men such as he are badly [illegible].

THE TARGET EXCURSION.—Arrangements having [illegible] the only interference that can now be [illegible] the Fenian Picnic and Target Excursion is a [illegible] much of rain. This, however, is not likely to [illegible] and it is expected that May will to-day be ushered [illegible] never was [illegible] on Oregon soil. The order of the day is set forth in advertisements and posters, as will [illegible]. The [illegible] Troop will leave the Lincoln House [illegible] at 10 o'clock, returning at 6 P. M. The 14th Infantry Band has been engaged for the occasion. The card [illegible] Dagherty shows that ample provision has [illegible] for refreshments on the grounds.

[illegible] BANK.—We are informed that the [illegible] Bank at Portland, arrived in charge of Mr. W. W. Eddy yesterday, and that there will be a [illegible] of the Board of directors of the Bank to-day to [illegible] the immediate commencement of business. The [illegible] of the new Bank have been fitted up for some [illegible] in Carter's Block, ready for the officers to begin [illegible], but the delay in the receipt of the issue has [illegible] them from working.

[illegible].—We are indebted to Mr. Fary-Aly, of the family grocery and vegetable store, corner of Alder and First streets, for a fine quality of strawberries, received by him from San Francisco per steamer Sierra Nevada. Being the first in the market Mr F thought to treat the printers, and he has our thanks.

THE LIBERAL CHURCH MOVEMENT.—We have been requested to notice that there will be a meeting at the [illegible] chamber this evening, of the subscribers to the fund for the purpose of establishing a liberal Christian church in this city. All are invited to attend, who feel [illegible] in the matter. The meeting will convene at 7½ o'clock.

STATUARY.—Our New York letter recently gave an account of a movement among Oregonians sojourning in [illegible] to obtain for this city a splendid marble statue of Gen. Grant, as an ornament for the public plaza. We [illegible] somewhat surprised yesterday to be informed that [illegible] had reached Portland, and was on exhibition at the establishment of J. L. Parrish & Co.

LATE PAPERS.—The latest periodicals, magazines, papers, etc., may be obtained of Mr S J McCormick, of the [illegible] Book Store, who received a large supply [illegible] steamer yesterday. Godey for May is to be found among the lot.

THE MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE.—Mr. Harris, proprietor of the above popular establishment, has decided to open his place as usual to-day. He is prepared to give satisfaction to his patrons. See advertisement.

CASCADE TROUT.—Our friends A. G. Bradford, Esq. and Mr. John Ainsworth, have our thanks for a fine lot of [illegible] trout, caught in a recent expedition in that latitude.

THE STEAMER.—The steamship Sierra Nevada will leave this port at 6 o'clock P. M. to-day for San Francisco.

ATTENTION — Fenian Guard.—You will assemble at your Armory in uniform this morning at 9 o'clock [illegible] for parade and target practice.
By order S. J. McCORMICK, Capt.
W. J. DOHERTY, Orderly.

State Items

The Mountaineer says: "Col. Hodges has purchased enough horses to mount the present number of cavalry at Vancouver, so that they may expect to see them along here en route to Chino some time next week."

Among the passengers by the Senator were Asahel Bush of Salem, W. H. Eddy, of Milwaukie, and Mr. Hinsdale of Douglas county. The first two gentlemen are just returned from the Eastern States.

One of Capt. Borland's soldiers lately discharged at the Dalles is said to be roaming about the streets in a demented condition.

The State Rights Democrat says: "On Wednesday morning the surface of the small pools of water, the sidewalks and ground all about in this city were slightly sprinkled with a yellow powder resembling flour of sulphur. Various theories are in circulation about it. We have never seen or heard of anything of the kind before."

W. A. McPherson and J. O'Meara, Esq., are accompanying the gubernatorial candidates in the canvass. They will be at Eugene City to-morrow.

The Mountaineer says, the people of Canyon City intend to present Gen. Halleck with a medal and suggests that it be made of leather with this inscription:

"To Maj. Gen. Halleck, from the citizens of Dalles and Canyon Cities, for the impartial manner in which he distributed the troops under his command to protect the Chico route, and none other."

From some evidence now in existence here, it is thought that Dr. S. R. Unckles, formerly a resident and medical practitioner at several places in Oregon, died on the passage between San Francisco and Panama last September or October. His agent here is unable to learn anything of his whereabouts since that time.

Resolved, That while we are called to mourn his loss to the society of Patriarchs, yet would we at this time tender to the family and friends of our deceased Brother our heartfelt sympathies for the loss of one who was ever respected by all who knew him not only in the Lodge room but in the social circle, and trust that God in his goodness has permitted him to enter that Grand Encampment above where that rest can only be found that we seek in vain on earth.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the Minutes of this Encampment and a copy of the same be sent to the family and friends of our deceased brother.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhoea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.
They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

M. HOWARD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE,
315 Montgomery St., San Francisco.

THE ABOVE PREPARATION WHICH HAS BEEN recently discovered and patented, is purely a Vegetable Extract.

The undersigned are fully aware of the many unsatisfactory and useless preparations for restoring hair that have been introduced to the public, and how little confidence is to be placed in any pretensions to restoring the hair to bald heads, but having tried MR. HOWARD'S PREPARATION, we are able to state that it not only prevents the hair from falling out, but absolutely reproduces it, and that we now have good suits of hair growing where we were entirely bald. Therefore, as a matter of justice to Mr. Howard and of consolation to bald heads we tender him this testimonial. Mr. H. keeps the article for sale in bottles with directions for its use, or applies it himself, as may be desired.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of all consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

It is impossible here to mention all the diseases with which he is familiar; some, perhaps, will not be out of place. The most formidable, the most destructive to mankind is Self-Abuse. The brain being the seat of the disease the whole system suffers in consequence. I here enumerate some of the symptoms, so that those afflicted may be able to form an opinion in regard to their complaints, and seek advice in time, thereby saving themselves a world of suffering: Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Pain in the Limbs and Back, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling of the Limbs, Headache, Aversion to Genial Society, especially that of [illegible] There are a great many more, but these are sufficient and should you be suffering from any of them, consult DR.
